

Ella Johannah Albertson

March 11, 1915 – December 1938

Mrs. H. Albertson, 23, Dies Suddenly

Funeral Services Will Be Conducted Friday Afternoon

Mrs. Harold Albertson, 23 years of age, suddenly and unexpectedly passed away at her home in Exeter township at about 7:35 Tuesday morning following a heart attack the evening before. Mrs. Albertson had been slightly ill for only about five days when she was suddenly taken from the earth and her loved ones.

A Severe Shock

The sudden and untimely death of Mrs. Albertson came as a severe shock to her relatives and friends. Few of her acquaintances knew that she had even been ill and the news of her death was received by them with sincere regret.

Born in Mt. Pleasant

Ella Johannah Schulz was a daughter of Albert and Hedwig Runger Schulz, having been born in Mt. Pleasant township March 11, 1915. She attended the Silver school in Mt. Pleasant township and was a confirmed member of the German Reformed church, Monticello. On Sept. 5, 1935, she was united in marriage to Harold Albertson, Rev. L. M. Gimmestad, pastor of the Orfordville Lutheran church, performing the ceremony. The couple took up their home with the groom's parents on their farm northwest of Attica.

Survivors

Surviving besides the widower are four sisters, Mesdames Dale Atkinson, Albany, and Howard Gould, Belleville, and Misses Alice and Florence Schulz, at home, one brother, at home, and the parents.

She was a member of the Zwingli Reformed church, Monticello, and was also a member of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid society of the Norwegian Settlement church.

Funeral Friday

Funeral services will be held at 1 Friday afternoon at the home and at 1:30 in the Zwingli Reformed church, Monticello. Rev. A. R. Achtemeier, church pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Highland cemetery.
