

Elizabeth Anderegg
December 9, 1905 - February 15, 1998

BELLEVILLE - Mrs. Elizabeth Anderegg, age 92, of Belleville, Wisconsin, passed away on Sunday, February 15, 1998, at St. Mary's Medical Center in Madison.

She was born on December 9, 1905 in Meiringen, Canton Bern, Switzerland, the daughter of John and Katharine (Imbaumgarten) Fischer. The family came to this country in 1914 and settled in the Argyle area. Elizabeth worked as a nanny in Milwaukee for a number of years and also helped with the Ringenberg family. On December 10, 1930, she was united in marriage to Emil Anderegg in Darlington. The couple farmed in the Argyle area for 16 years, moved to the Brooklyn area where they farmed another 16 years, and then moved to Monticello where they retired. Following the death of her husband, Elizabeth moved to Belleville. She enjoyed sewing, needlework, baking bread and cookies, and flower gardening. She especially enjoyed walking to the park and looking over the lake. She was a member of the First United Church of Christ in Belleville and the Belleville Senior Citizens.

Survivors include a son, Bernard Anderegg of Idaho Falls, Idaho; a daughter, Rose (Bill) Legler of Brooklyn; a brother, Andrew (Orpha) Fischer of Monticello; six grandchildren, Dawn Bryant of Oregon, Becky Legler of Belleville, Sheree (Guy) Solberg of Monroe, Arthur (Jody) Legler of Brooklyn, Roy Legler of Belleville, and Brenda (Jay) McMurtrey of Idaho Falls, Idaho; and five great-grandchildren, Angela and Craig Bryant, Alishia and Nichole Legler, and Ashley Legler.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Emil in 1977; a sister, Katie Nall; and four brothers, John, Ernest, Arnold, and Fred Fischer.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, February 19, 1998 at 11:00 a.m. at the FIRST UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST in Belleville. The Reverend Michael Campbell will officiate, with burial in Highland Cemetery in Monticello. Relatives and friends may call from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, February 18, 1998 at the BECKER-BEAL FUNERAL HOME in Belleville. The family suggests memorials to the First United Church of Christ in Belleville.
