

William Trask Arnold
Nov. 28, 1924 - Nov. 25, 1975

William Arnold, Madison, who died Tuesday Nov. 25, in a Madison hospital, was buried Saturday, Nov. 29, in Highland Cemetery, Monticello. Final rites were conducted at the cemetery.

Funeral services were held at the Ryan-Peterson Funeral Home, Madison, with Rev. Jon Schultz of the United Church of Christ officiating.

The deceased was the husband of the late Esther Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Brink, Monticello. She died in September of 1965. A native of Madison, he had been an iron worker in the construction trades for many years.

He is survived by a son, David, Whitewater; three daughters, Mrs. Thomas (Karen) May, and Roberta, both of Wauwatosa, and Patricia, Madison; a brother, a sister and four grandchildren.

Following the services at the cemetery, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas May and Roberta Arnold, Milwaukee; David Arnold, Whitewater; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brink and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brink and family, and Mrs. Leona Byrge, Verona; Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Jim O'Conner, Whitewater; Mrs. Von Escher and daughters, Madison; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Babler, New Glarus, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schwartzberger and Mrs. Robert Kingdon, Monroe, gathered at the David Brink home.