

Alma E. Babler
April 4, 1913 - Nov. 14, 1992

Mrs. Alma E. Babler, 79, Monticello, died Saturday, Nov. 14, 1992 at Pleasant View, Monroe.

The former Alma E. Heiserman was born April 4, 1913 in Manfred Township, Minn., the daughter of Lewis A. and Sophia K. (Reinmuth) Heiserman. She was a graduate of Gary High School, Gary, S. D., class of 1932 and a graduate of Methodist State Hospital School of Nursing, Mitchell, S. D. class of 1936. Alma was a nurse at St. Clare Hospital, Monroe, for 30 years until retiring. On April 28, 1939 she was united in marriage to John C. Babler at Monticello.

She was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello, and its Women's Guild and Zwingli's Ladies Aid. She had also taught Sunday School for many years.

Survivors include: a son, Roger Babler, Monticello; a daughter, Ruth Ann (Ray) Robertson, New Berlin; two granddaughters, Diana Robertson and Brenda Robertson; a twin brother, Elmer (Elsie) Heiserman, Gary, S. D.; a sister, Mrs. Clistie Stephanie, St. Paul, Minn.; and nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death was her husband, John C. Babler; three brothers, Wilbert, Clarence and Harold; two sisters, Esther Voog and Ruth Haugen.

Funeral services were Tuesday at the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello, The Rev. Erwin Pegel officiating with burial in the Highland Cemetery, Monticello.