Nona Babler, 54, Monticello, Dies

Miss Nona P. Babler, 54, died at 5:15 p. m. yesterday at the farm home, Highway 39, two miles south of Monticello, after a long illness. She and her mother, Mrs. Fred Babler, and a sister, Miss Edna, lived on the home place.

Miss Babler, daughter of Fred and Mary Kuehni Babler, was born in Mt. Pleasant Township July 8, 1906. She graduated from Monticello high school in 1925 and from the Green County Teachers College. She taught three years at her home school, Babler, until poor health caused her to resign. Her sister, Miss Edna, teacher at the Silver school, is one of the county's veteran teachers.

Miss Nona was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ.

Surviving are her mother and two sisters, Miss Edna, at home, and Mrs. Walter (Alva) Tryon, Mt. Pleasant Township. Her father died Jan. 10, 1956.

Services will be at 2 p. Thursday in Zwingli church with Rev. J. Allan Mittler, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Highland cemetery. Friends may call at the Voegeli funeral home after 4 p. m. tomorrow.
