

Myrta Bartlett
Feb. 16, 1885 - Dec. 5, 1966
Mrs. Bartlett Taken by Death

ALBANY (Times Special) — Mrs. P. J. Bartlett Sr., Danvers, Minn., a native of Brooklyn Township, died Tuesday in Danvers where the funeral was held this morning.

She was the mother of Ms. Herbert (Mary) Striker of Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Striker and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pickett, are at Danvers for the funeral.

Mrs. Bartlett was the former Myrta Norton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Norton. She and Mr. Bartlett were married in 1905. They farmed in the Attica area until 1913, moving then to the farm near Danvers.

Surviving are the husband; six children, Mrs. Stanley Eggstrom, Kerkhoven, Minn.; Mrs. Robert Bowers, Phoénix, Ariz.; Homer Bartlett, Benson, Minn., Lyle and Percy Jr., on the home farm, and Mrs. Striker; a sister, Miss Grace Norton, Brooklyn, and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

NOTE: Interred in Church of the Visitation cemetery, Danvers, Minn.