

Mary Emeline Baumgartner

May 28, 1847 - April 23, 1898

Died--Baumgartner.

At her own home in the town of Washington, Green county, Wis., April 23, 1898, Mary Baumgartner, wife of Anton Baumgartner, and daughter of S. T. Clayton.

OBITUARY.

Deceased was born in Crawford county, Ill, May 28, 1847, and came to Wisconsin in 1848. She was married to Anton Baumgartner, Aug, 26, 1869, and united With the M. E. church the same year, living a useful, Christian life, always doing her best for the church, of which she was a member.

For about forty years she has been a regular attendant at the house of God, always ready and willing to sing His praise. She has left us and her cheerful voice will never more be heard at Center Church, and to at least one member of the congregation who has heard her sing for forty years. her loss seems irreparable. For ten weeks she was a patient sufferer, although her suffering was great. Her trust was in Jesus and her only regret was that she must leave her family.

She leaves a devoted husband, four sons and three daughters, three brothers and four sisters and a wide circle of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. One little daughter having preceded her to the better land. Her funeral services were held at Center church, conducted by the Rev. Nicholas, who preached an excellent sermon from the text; 'Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.'

Her remains were followed by a large gathering of relatives and friends, and interred in the Union cemetery in the town of Washington to await the voice of Him, who said I am the Resurrection and the Life.

Card of Thanks.

To the kind friends who assisted us during the illness and burial of our beloved wife and mother, we desire to extend our heartfelt thanks.

ANTON BAUMGARTNER and Family.