

Louise B. Becker

Jan. 23, 1897 - Jan. 25, 1975

A native of Washington Township, Miss Louise B. Becker, 78, Janesville, died about 8 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 25, in the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Hoesly, Janesville. She had been at the sister's home a couple of weeks following dismissal from Mercy Hospital, Janesville, where she had undergone surgery in December.

Miss Becker was born Jan. 23, 1897, a daughter of Peter and Anna Elmer Becker. She attended Monticello schools and lived at the parental home until a few years after the death of her mother in 1940. She then moved to Janesville and had worked at the Norm B. Carle Tobacco Warehouse and had her own apartment.

She was baptized and confirmed at Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello, and was a member of the Brighter Day Senior Citizens Club of Janesville.

Her sister, Mrs. Edward (Ida) Hoesly is the only immediate survivor.

Her father died in 1925. Three Sisters preceded her in death: Katie, at the age of five; Mrs. Sam B. Klassy, Belleville, and Mrs. John von Arx, Monroe, and a brother Casper, age 18.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 29, in Zwingli Church, Monticello. Rev. Charles G. Workman is to officiate. Burial will be there in Highland Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Wolfgram Funeral Home, Janesville, on Tuesday, 2 to 4 pm. and 7 to 9 pm. and at, Zwingli Church from 12 noon Wednesday, until time of service.

Pallbearers for Miss Becker will be Donald R. Hoesly, Gerald H. Hoesly, Richard C. Kersten, and William Klatt, all of Janesville; Karl von Arx, Lena, Ill., and Robert J. von Arx, Monroe.
