

Christian Bontly
1865 - Dec. 27, 1948

Christian Bontly, 83, of 206 N. Brearly St., died Monday at a Madison hospital.

A former resident of Monticello, he was in the cheese business there for many years before moving to Madison more than 40 years ago. He was in the wholesale cheese business here for many years.

Born in Nashville, Tennessee, he came to Wisconsin as a youth and was married to the former Susanna Babler in New Glarus in 1889.

He was a member of the Memorial Evangelical and Reformed church of Madison.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, William, Janesville; Clarence, Madison, and Louis, New Orleans, La.; seven grandchildren, and six great grandchildren.

NOTE: He was interred in the Zwingli cemetery, Monticello.