

Louisa Elizabeth Burgy

1875 - Nov. 19, 1941

Mrs. Jacob J. Burgy, 68, Monticello resident died Thursday evening the Monroe Hospital, where she had been a patient only a day. She had been suffering from heart disease for a long time.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs Fred Tschudy, born near Monroe. Her mother died in her youth and she assumed the responsibility of rearing the motherless family of six children. Her marriage to Jacob J. Burgy was on March 21, 1895. They moved to the Burgy farm in Washington township and lived there until 1933 when they came to Monticello to live.

Surviving are the husband, three children, Mrs. Chester J. Hoesly of Madison, a son, Herbert, professor in Illinois University and a son, Fred Burgy on the home farm; three grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Otto Kubly, Mrs. Julius Hartwig, J. Jacob, Arthur Andrew and Emil Tschudy, Monroe. Mrs. Mary Paddock, Mill Valley, Cal; Rev. Fridolin Tschudy, Darlington; Corp Ben, Tschudy, Ft. Bliss, Texas; Miss Ophelia Tschudy, Elgin, Ill.; Lt. Comm. Lionel Tschudy, civil engineer in the U. S Navy at New Orleans, La. and Pvt. Theo Tschudy, Camp Wolters, Texas. Two sisters Annette and Magdalena are deceased.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Monticello Evangelical and Reformed church, the Rev. A. R. Achtemeier, officiating.

NOTE: New Glarus Post, 11/25/1942. Interred in Highland cemetery, Monticello.