

Warren P. Canfil
May 13, 1899 - Sept. 26, 1981

Warren P. Canfil, 82, died Sept. 26, 1981 at St. Clare Hospital after having been a resident for two years at Monroe Manor Nursing Home.

Born May 13, 1899 in Attica, he was the son of Turner and Clara Canfil. After moving to Albany he worked at the Indiana Condensery for 15 years as a fireman. He also lived in Evansville; Duluth, Minn. and one year with the Harry Reasa family in Albany before moving to Monroe Manor.

A veteran of World War II, he was a former member of Masonic Lodge 36 F & AM, Albany and the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Duluth.

Survivors include only cousins, Maude Reasa Hildebrandt, Stoughton; Cliff Reasa and Mrs. Andrew (Phyllis) Legler, of Monroe and Harry Reasa, Albany.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Gohlke's Sharer Funeral Home with the Rev. Mark Pirazzini, Evansville officiating. Burial will be in Attica Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 6-8 p.m. Monday. Memorials for the American Legion and the Albany Masonic Lodge have been established.
