

Anthony Francis “Bush” Carroll

March 14, 1866 - April 26, 1942

Anthony, 76, son of an early Irish settler of Mt. Pleasant, died Sunday afternoon in the Monroe hospital after illness of only a week.

Mr. Carroll, unmarried, resided on the Dayton road four miles east of Monticello. He was in Monticello on Saturday, April 18 and was taken ill shortly afterward. He entered the hospital a week ago today.

Anthony Francis Carroll, known as "Bush", was born in Mt. Pleasant on March 14, 1866, the son of Anthony and Bridget Cary Carroll, both natives of County Tipperary, Ireland. He attended St. James Catholic church at Dayton.

Funeral rites were in St. James church. Rev. Theo. Zingsheim, Belleville, pastor of St. James will officiate, with burial in Dayton Catholic Cemetery.