

Adah V. Chesebro
1862 - March 11, 1952

Mrs. Chesebro, Aged 83, Monroe, Expires
Rites Held Thursday for Former Washington Twp. Resident

Funeral services for Mrs. Eldridge Chesebro, 83, who died at her home here on Tuesday of last week, were held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Shriner-Neushwander funeral home.

The Reverends Howard L. Orians, pastor of the Immanuel Evangelical church, and L. E. Curtis, pastor of the Monroe Assembly of God church, officiated, and burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

Born in Iowa, Mrs. Chesebro was married on March 13, 1890, in Monroe. She was the former Adah Morrison.

She and her husband farmed in Washington township, four miles southwest of Monticello, until 1929, when they moved into the city. She was a member of the Immanuel Evangelical church.

Survivors include her husband; a son, Roy, Monroe; two sisters, Mrs. Nettie Baldwin, Half Moon, Calif., and Mrs. Flora Belle Innisfail, Canada; a brother, James Morrison, Olewein, Iowa; seven grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.