

Bruce Ray Dallman
July 11, 1943 – April 7, 2016

Bruce Ray Dallman, age 72, passed away peacefully at St. Joseph's Nursing Center in Freeport, IL, surrounded by loved ones. He was born in Beloit, WI, the son of Edwin and Alice (Wescott) Dallman. His early years were spent in the Brooklyn area. Bruce attended Kelly School and Albany HS. He married 3 times. He lived in the Evansville, Monticello, and Freeport areas. He had a variety of jobs; farm work, factory work, truck driving, security guard and bartender to name a few. Bruce served in the Army and was stationed in Korea. He was very proud that he was part of a four generation military service; his father, 2 sons and 2 grandsons. All served in the Army. Bruce belonged to the Albany American Legion.

NOTE: Interred in the Attica cemetery.
