

Myrtie Evans

November 26, 1890 – February 16, 1972

A Green County native, Mrs. Myrtie Evans, 81, Rt. 4, Janesville, died Wednesday, Feb. 16, in Rock Haven Nursing Home, Janesville, after a long illness.

The former Myrtie Dooly was born in Mt. Pleasant township, about a mile east of Monticello, a daughter of James and Theresa Rossiter Dooly. She was married Feb. 11, 1914, in St. Rose Catholic Church in Brodhead to Walter Evans. They moved to Rock County, from Brooklyn Township, Green County, in 1931, farming near Footville. Her husband died July 20, 1967.

She was a member of St. Augustine's Catholic Church of Footville.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. James E. McGuire, Janesville; two sons, Phillip, Hanover, and Harold, Appleton; two sisters, Mrs. Theresa Clapper, Janesville, and Mrs. Mary Koepke, Madison; a brother, James Dooley, rural Monticello; five grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Friday morning, Feb. 18, at 9:30 in the Nelson-Schneider Funeral Home, Janesville, and at 10 in St. Augustine's Church. Burial is to be in St. Patrick's Catholic Cemetery at Albany.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and evening. The Rosary service will be at 8 tonight.