

Emma Gempeler
Dec. 28, 1884 - December 11, 1960
Mrs. Gempeler, Monticello, Dies

Mrs. Ernest Gempeler, 75, Monticello, died at 3:45 p.m. yesterday in St. Clare hospital where she had been hospitalized since Nov 9.

Mrs. Gempeler was a sister of Assemblyman C. M. Stauffer. She was the former Emma Stauffer, daughter of Jacob and Katherine ZumBrunnen Stauffer, born Dec. 28, 1884, in New Glarus Township. She attended Monticello schools.

She and Ernest Gempeler were married Nov. 16, 1905, in Zwingli Reformed church, Monticello, with Rev. Carl Heyl officiating.

The couple lived on a farm southwest of Monticello, retiring to the village Jan. 1, 1950. Mr. Gempeler died Dec. 24, 1959.

Mrs. Gempeler was a member of Zwingli United Church of Christ and Aid Society.

Surviving are a son, Fred E. Gempeler, on the homestead farm; a daughter, Mrs. Ray (Frieda) Luchsinger, Monticello; three brothers, Fred, Jacob and C. M. Stauffer, all of Monticello; four sisters, Mrs. Anna Gempeler, Footville; Misses Kate and Rose Stauffer, both of Monticello, and Mrs. Clifton Taylor, Pacoma, Calif.: 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

She also was preceded in death by a daughter, Louise, Sept. 5, 1958; twin daughters, Emima and Emilie, in infancy, and a sister, Miss Emilie Stauffer, Los Angeles.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Zwingli church, Monticello, with Rev. J. Allan Mittler officiating. Burial will be in Highland cemetery. Friends may call at the Voegeli funeral home after 2 p.m. tomorrow.