

Colleen Gobeli

MONTICELLO — Mrs. Colleen Gobeli, 65, W6665 Dividing Ridge, Monticello, died Wednesday, Dec. 29, 1993 at her home in Washington Township. She was born Jan. 10, 1928 in Washington Township, the daughter of Fred W. and Louise (Roethlisberger) Blum. She was a graduate of Monticello High School and attended technical college in Milwaukee. She married Adolph E. "Duff" Gobeli Jan. 10, 1953 at Monticello. She worked for the telephone company in Milwaukee. After marriage, she lived in Monroe for five years, Juda for two years and was a Monticello area resident since 1961. She was a private secretary at Advance Transformer before retiring Oct. 30, 1992. Since 1981, she also operated Gobeli's Self Service in Monticello.

Mrs. Gobeli was a member of Washington Reformation Church.

Survivors include a son, Gary D. Gobeli, rural Monticello; two daughters, Judy L. Zettle, Monticello, and Mrs. Randy (Jeanette A.) Weeden, Brodhead; four brothers, Frederick Blum, Janesville, Richard Blum, New Glarus, John W. Blum, Monticello, and Robert Blum, Cross Plains; six grandchildren and two step-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1981; her father in 1957; her mother in 1985; and a sister, Lorraine, in 1934.

Funeral services are 11 am. Tuesday, Jan. 4, in Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello. The Rev. David Voll, pastor of Washington Reformation Church, will officiate. Burial is in Highland Cemetery, Monticello.

Friends may call after 5 pm. Monday at Voegeli-Newcomer Funeral Home, 360 S. Garfield, Monticello, and after 9 am. Tuesday until time of services at Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

A memorial fund was established.