

George Hancock
1853 - February 22, 1931

George Hancock, 80, Dies at Monticello

MONTICELLO, Wis. — George Hancock, 80, a prominent farmer died late Sunday night at the farm home in which he was born.

George Hancock, who has spent most of his life near Albany, died Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jonas Noggles. one mile west of town, The body was brought to Monticello where the funeral was held Tuesday.

NOTE: Interred in Highland cemetery, Monticello. Husband of Caroline Staedtler Hancock.