

Stillmon Huntley

June 24, 1889 - Oct. 16, 1980

Stillmon Huntley, 91, Monticello, died Oct. 16, in the Monroe Manor Nursing Home, where he had entered on Oct. 8.

Born near Granton, Clark County, WI, on June 24, 1889, he was the son of George and Mary Sutton Huntley. He attended Clark County rural schools and as a young man had worked in logging camps in northern Wisconsin until coming to Green County in 1910.

His marriage to the former Nellie Pierce took place Nov. 26, 1912, in Monticello at the home of the bride. The couple had observed their 67th wedding anniversary last year. They had farmed on three separate farms in Washington, Adams and Mt. Pleasant townships, until retiring and moving to the village of Monticello in 1952.

Survivors include his wife, Nellie; two sons, Lawrence P. Huntley, Monticello, and Leland S. Huntley, Brodhead; two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Bidlingmaier, rural Argyle, and Mrs. Jacob (Irma) Wettach, rural Belleville; 12 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, Harmon, Francis, Milton and Vernon, and a sister, Mrs. Roy Lawrence.

Services were held Saturday, Oct. 18, in Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello. Rev. Charles G. Workman officiated.

Pallbearers were grandsons, Lauren Enzinger and Gordon Huntley, Freeport; Marty Huntley, Ft. Atkinson, David and George Huntley, Madison, and Edwin Wettach, rural Monticello.
