

Carol E. Jordan

June 23, 1900 – November 29, 1957

Miss Carol Jordan, Native of Monticello, Dies Early Friday

Funeral services for Miss Carol E. Jordan, 57 years of age, a native of Monticello, but who had been living in Madison since 1940, who passed away early Friday morning at her home of a sudden heart attack, were held at 2 Monday afternoon in the Voegeli funeral home here.

The Rev. A. R. Achtemeier, pastor of the Monticello Zwingli United Church of Christ, officiated, and burial was in Highland cemetery. Pallbearers were Henry V. Baebler, James F. Dooley, Fred Escher, C. W. Karlen, Willard Prisk and Adam Schuler.

Miss Jordan apparently was in her usual health upon retiring Thanksgiving night after spending the day at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. W. Nelson, Madison, where a family gathering was held. Miss Jordan's body was found by another lady who resides in the same house.

She was born in Monticello June 23, 1900, the daughter of Fred and Viola E. Tone Jordan. She graduated from the Monticello high school and was a bookkeeper at the Karlen & Sons Ford garage for 10 years. She also lived in Monroe and Aurora, Ill., before moving to Madison. She recently had been a bookkeeper at the Perfume Shop on State Street in Madison,

Miss Jordan, a friendly individual, whose buoyant personality brought her many friends, was a member of the Monticello chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star

She is survived by one brother, Cecil, Monticello; her sister Mrs. Nelson, Madison, two nieces and one nephew. She was preceded in death by her father in 1930 and her mother in 1950.
