

Clyde E. Kilgore
Oct. 17, 1887 - Jan. 28, 1961

Kilgore, Printing Official, Dies Here at Age 68

Clyde E. Kilgore, 68, of 602 E. Gorham st., vice-president of the Kilgore Printing Co., died Saturday night (Jan. 28, 1961) in a Madison hospital after a long illness. :

He was born in Monticello and lived most of his life in Madison. He was an officer of the Kilgore Printing Co., 117 E. Mifflin st., for many years.

His first wife, Cecilia, died in 1952. He was a member of the Madison Eagle Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Louise; two sons, Robert D., 3810 John st., and Edward C., Chicago; a brother, Forrest, 725 Farwell dr.; three sisters, Mrs. A. R. Nottingham, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mrs. Elmer L. Goldsmith, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Herbert J. Lehmann, 725 Farwell dr., Maple Bluff; and four grandchildren.

NOTE: Interred in Zwingli cemetery, Monticello.