

Charles W. Kropf
April 22, 1913 - Jan. 18, 1983

Charles W. Kropf, 69, rural Monticello, died Tuesday, Jan. 18, 1983 while working on the Alvin R. Bernet farm in Washington Township. Death was a result from an apparent heart attack. He had been in declining health for the past two years.

The son of Emil and Fannie Birkey Kropf, he was born on April 22, 1913, in Denver Colo. He came to Green County as a child with his family, and had attended the Marty and Voegeli rural schools. He had worked as a farmhand in the Monticello area and been employed and had resided with the Bernets for many years.

Survivors include two brothers, Edward C. Kropf, Sauk City, and Robert, Kropf, Louisville, Ky. Funeral services were held Friday, Jan. 21, in the Zwingli Church Lounge in Monticello. Rev. Charles G. Workman officiated and burial was in Highland Cemetery, Monticello.

Preceding him in death were his parents and two brothers, Walter in 1961 and Herman in 1981.

Pallbearers were Alvin R. Bernet, Duane A. Bernet, Kevin F. Bernet, Dennis W. Holcomb, LeRoy H, Rindy and Edwin F. Saxer.