Mrs. Krueger Taken by Death

ALBANY — Mrs. William Krueger, 61, former operator of a variety store here, died at 3 a.m. yesterday in Stoughton Community Hospital.

She had undergone surgery in there three weeks ago and had been home only a few days when she was returned by ambulance to the hospital Friday evening.

The former Nettie Anderson was born in Brodhead Jan. 5, 1904, the daughter of Andrew and Minnie Cleveland Anderson. She and William Krueger were married in Monticello Feb. 15, 1922. They had lived in the Albany-Monticello and Orfordville rural areas until moving to the village in 1939. For many years, she had worked at the drugstore and then had a variety shop, until a few years ago.

Mrs. Krueger was a member of the Albany Lutheran Church, a past noble grand of Jauneta Rebekah Lodge, and vice-president of the Sugar River Homemakers.

Her hobby was cake decorating.

Surviving are her husband; a son, Eugene, Albany; her mother, Mrs. Minnie Anderson, also of Albany; a brother, Vance Anderson, Brodhead; three sisters, Mrs. Henry Disch, Evansville; Mrs. Anker Hansen Albany, and Mrs. Kenneth Bennett, Edgerton, and a grandson, Dennis Krueger.

She was preceded in death by her father April 24, 1951 and two brothers, one in infancy, and Virgil, July 4, 1931.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Sharer Funeral Home. Rev. R. A. Nowland of the Albany and Orfordville Lutheran Churches will officiate. Burial will be in Highland Cemetery at Monticello.

Friends may call at the funeral home through this evening.
