

Bertha Ladwig
July 2, 1867 - April 11, 1952
Mrs.H. A. Ladwig Succumbs af 84

Mrs. Herman A. Ladwig, 84, of 1512 17th avenue died at 8 last night at her home after a sudden heart attack.

Mrs. Ladwig had been in failing health the past year. Four and a half years ago she suffered a broken hip in a fall, but recovered completely. A year ago she was hospitalized with pneumonia, however, and had been ill since.

The Ladwigs marked their 62nd wedding anniversary March 6.

She was born at Jacobsdorf, Germany, July 2, 1867, the daughter of August and Wilhelmina Brandt Feldt. Her given name was Bertha.

The family came to the United States when she was 5 in 1872 and settled at Juda. She received her education at Dutch Hollow.

She and Herman Ladwig were married March 6, 1890, at Dutch Hollow and lived on a farm at Round Grove a year. They then moved to a farm in Sylvester township where they remained 38 years, moving here 23 years ago.

Mrs. Ladwig leaves the widower, three sons, Samuel, Edwin and John, all of Sylvester township; two daughters, Mrs. Martin Frederick and Mary Ladwig, Sylvester, 12 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren: three brothers, August Feldt, Monroe; John, Freeport, and Edwin, Evansville; and a sister, Mrs. Emma Luchsinger, Evansville.

She was preceded in death by two children in infancy, two daughters, Mrs. John F. Golz in 1938 and Miss Ruby in 1940, two brothers, Frank and Fred, and two grandchildren.

She was a member of Immanuel Evangelical United Brethren church and the Faithful Worker Sunday school class.

Friends may call until 10 a. m. Monday at the Stuessy funeral home. The body then will be taken to the church for 1:30 services. Rev. Howard L. Orians, church pastor will conduct the funeral rites which will be followed by burial at Dutch Hollow cemetery.
