

Paul F. Leutenegger
September 2, 1928 - August 12, 2005

Paul F. Leutenegger, age 76, of Monroe, died Friday, August 12, 2005 at Pleasant View Nursing Home, Monroe. Paul was born September 2, 1928 in Argyle, Wisconsin, the son of Emil and Marie (Stecher) Leutenegger. He attended Attica Rural School. Paul married Anita Courtney on August 2, 1959. He later married Betty DeRemer on September 15, 1980. He worked as a mechanic for Studer Super Service of Monroe for several years before moving to St. Louis, MO. where he helped construct the St. Louis Arch and Busch Stadium. He returned to Monroe and established Leutenegger Excavating in the early 1970's. He retired in 1990.

Paul was a former member of the Monroe Elks Club and Monroe Moose Lodge. He enjoyed traveling, boating, four-wheeling, woodworking, and his two German Shepherds.

Survivors include two sons, Peter (Sara) Leutenegger and Dustin Leutenegger, both of Monroe; a daughter, Laurie (Richard) Johnson of Wiota; four grandchildren: Trevor Johnson, Tyler, Allison, and Hailey Leutenegger; two brothers, Nick Leutenegger of Monroe, Joe Leutenegger of Portland, OR.; and a sister, Toni Cory of Monroe.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Emil Leutenegger Jr.; and a sister, Mary Fiez.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, August 16, 2005, at 11:00 a.m., at the NEWCOMER FUNERAL HOME, Monroe. Rev. Gretchen Sylvester of St. John's United Church of Christ, Monroe, will officiate. Interment will be in Highland Cemetery, Monticello.

Friends may call at the funeral home on Monday from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. A memorial fund will be established in Paul's name.
