

Mata E. Lynn
June 8, 1898 - Sept. 26, 1975
MRS. MATA E. LYNN

Mrs. Mata E. Lynn, Monticello, died Friday, Sept. 26, 1975 in Sacred Heart Hospital, Eau Claire, where she had been a patient for five weeks. She was the former Mata E. Steinmann, the daughter of John Casper and Barbara Legler Steinmann. She graduated from Monticello High School in 1916. On August 7, 1921, she was married to M. E. (Peg) Lynn, in Monticello, by the late Rev. A. Muehlmeier. She has always lived in Monticello.

She is survived by two sons, Melvin E. Lynn, Jr., Eau Claire, and Gene E. Lynn, Bellevue, Washington; six granddaughters and one grandson. Preceding her in death were her husband in 1969; one sister, Mrs. Herman (Lena) L. Karlen; and three brothers, George, John C. (Jack), Jr., and Fred Steinmann, all of Monticello.

Mrs. Lynn was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Zwingli Ladies Aid Society, member of the New Glarus Order of Eastern Star, No. 235, member and Secretary of the Foreign Peoples Missionary Society. She was a Past Worthy Matron when the O.E.S. was in Monticello, and a Past Grand Adah of the Grand Chapter of the O.E.S. (Wisconsin) in 1950.

Eastern Star Services were conducted on Monday, September 29, at 8:45 p.m. at the Zwingli Church Memorial Lounge, where the visitation was held for Mrs. Lynn. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday, Sept. 30, at 1:30 p.m. in the Zwingli United Church of Christ with the Rev. Charles G. Workman officiating. Interment was in Highland Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Fred T. Burgy, Carl J. Dick, Wilbert J. Dick, Royal W. Karlen, Jr., C. W. Loveland, and Howard R. Steinmann, all of Monticello. Honorary pallbearers were Richard K. Dugdale, Sr., Cascade, Colorado; Michael Hoesly, Fort Knox, Ky.; Frederick R. Steinmann, Elm Grove; Gordon K. Steinmann, Madison; and C. W. Karlen, John W. Steinmann, and R. W. Woelffer, Sr., all of Monticello.

Memorials may be made to the Cancer Fund.
