CHARLES MARTY OF MONTICELLO BURIED

Monticello—Funeral services for Charles Marty, Sr., 79 years of age, who passed away in his home here Sunday afternoon following several years of failing health were conducted at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Marty home by Rev. A. Muehlmeier, pastor of the local Reformed church. Burial was in the Washington township Reformed church cemetery.

Mr. Marty, who was born Aug. 4, 1853, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melchior Marty. He was married to Anna Legler on Dec. 7, 1876, in New Glarus. They resided on a farm in Washington township near Monticello until 25 years ago when they moved to the village. For a number of years Mr. Marty was a partner in the implement business of Wichser & Marty here.

Besides the widow, Mr. Marty is survived by two sons, Charles R., Monticello, and Henry W., Roberts, Wis., and one daughter, Mrs. John Moritz, Monticello; seven grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. Three children passed away in infancy.
