

Emma Marty
May 8, 1890 - June 22, 1972

Miss Emma Marty, 82, Monticello, died at 4:15 p.m. Thursday, June 22, in St. Clare Hospital. She had been a patient there since June 9, after sustaining a broken pelvic bone. She had been a resident of Monticello since 1907, living in the same house on East Lake Avenue.

Miss Marty was born May 8, 1890, on the Marty Homestead Farm, in Mt. Pleasant, a daughter of Jacob and Mathilda Jenny Marty. She attended Elmer rural school. Her father was the first president of the Bank of Monticello.

Miss Marty was a member of Zwingli United Church of Christ of Monticello.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. W. E. Blum, Monticello; a niece, Miss Irene Marty, Monticello, and a nephew, Wilbert A. Marty, Mt. Horeb.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Albert J. Marty, June 20, 1970, and her parents. Her widowed mother died in October 1932.

Services for Miss Marty will be at 2 p.m. Monday, June 26, in Zwingli United Church Memorial Lounge at Monticello. Her pastor, Rev: Charles Workman, is to officiate.

Friends may call at the Memorial Lounge from 4 to 8 p.m. Sunday.

Voegeli Funeral Service is in charge of arrangements.

NOTE: Interred in the old Monticello (Zwingli) cemetery.
