

Susan Moser

Dec. 12, 1858 – March 21, 1946

Mrs. Susan Moser, 87, Dies Thursday After Long Illness Rites Held Sunday P. M. For Former Resident Of Monticello

Funeral services for Mrs. Susan Moser, 87 years of age, esteemed resident of the Monticello vicinity for many years, who passed away Thursday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Rudy Schilt, Monroe, after an illness of six months' duration, were held at 3 Sunday afternoon in the Voegeli funeral home here.

The Rev. A. R. Achtemeier, pastor of the Zwingli Evangelical and Reformed church, officiated, and burial was in the church cemetery on Railroad avenue.

Native of Switzerland

Susan Zimmerman was a native of Switzerland, having been born Dec. 12, 1858, in Canton Glarus, the daughter of Peter and Anna Hefty Zimmerman. When she was only one year old she accompanied her parents to America, the family settling near New Glarus. In 1884 she was united in marriage to Michael Moser, the ceremony taking place in Monroe. The couple took up farming and lived on farms in the Monroe and Brodhead communities until 1899, when they moved to a farm a short distance northeast of Monticello, now owned by a son, Fred. In 1919 they moved to a home which they built at the northeast edge of the Monticello village limits. Since the death of her husband in 1939, Mrs. Moser had made her home with her daughter in Monroe.

Mrs. Moser was a member of the Zwingli Evangelical and Reformed church, Monticello,

She is survived by two sons, Fred W. Moser, Monticello, and Peter, Pittsville; three daughters, Mrs. Henry H. Freitag, New Glarus, Mrs. Josephine Wasrud, Iola, and Mrs. Rudy Schilt, Monroe; 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; two brothers, Peter Zimmerman, Monticello, and John P. Zimmerman, Beloit; and one sister, Mrs. Rose Zwickey, Albany.