Albert M. Ross Taken by Death

Word has been received here of the death of Albert Merle Ross, 57, late Tuesday evening at Marion, Wis., just two weeks after moving from Monroe where he had lived several years. Death was attributed to cerebral hemorrhage. He had been hospitalized one and one-half days before death.

Mr. Ross worked three years at Burgess Battery and the last three years at Kraft Foods, Monroe. He had previously been employed as janitor of the Methodist church and as farmer in the vicinity.

He was born May 10, 1891, in Stephenson county, Ill. His wife, the former Bessie Baumgartner, died shortly after they moved to this area.

Survivors are a brother, Louis, Freeport, and one sister, Mrs. Frank Neu, Green Bay. He was preceded in death by his wife, his parents and an infant child.

The body was brought to the Shriner-Neushwander home where the funeral services will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. Rev. Ralph Kofoed officiating. Burial will be in the Loveland cemetery, Monroe township.
