

Irvine D. Ross

1873-1901

Irvine Ross died at his home in Attica on the 4th inst. of consumption. He has been in poor health for several years, but has carried the mail between Attica and Monticello the past two years in hopes that the outdoor work would benefit him.

Deceased left a wife, formerly Miss Nettie Jones of Albany, and a little daughter and is also mourned by his mother and three sisters.

Rev. Swartz of Belleville conducted the funeral services at Attica Friday morning.
