

Martin P. Rowell

February 18, 1935 - September 9, 1892

Died at his home in Exeter, Wis., on September 9, 1892, after a lingering illness, Martin P. Rowell, aged 57 years, 6 months and 19 days.

Mr. Rowell was born in Hopkinton, N. H. Feb. 18, 1835. He moved to Albany in 1868 and in 1874 moved to Exeter, where he died. He enlisted in the army in April 1861 in the 2nd New Hampshire Volunteers. He received a sunstroke during the first battle of Bull Run and was honorably discharged Aug. 1, 1861.

He was married to Rose A. Tuttle Dec. 9, 1862 at West Concord, N. J., and for 30 years they walked the journey of life together, sharing each other's joys and sorrows and bearing each other's burdens. He was a kind and loving husband and father, esteemed by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and two children, Gertrude and George, to mourn their loss. The bereaved family have the sympathy of all in their great sorrow.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. E. Liddle of Monticello on Sunday, Sept. 11, 1892.
