

Elmer C. Schuett Sr.

Jan. 20, 1929 - Feb. 6, 1982

EVANSVILLE—Elmer C. Schuett Sr., 53, of Route 1, died Saturday in Veterans Administration Hospital, Madison, after an illness.

Born Jan. 20, 1929, in Chicago, he married Velma Elmer on April 27, 1968, in Monticello.

An Evansville resident the past 13 years, Schuett had been employed as an assembler by Sta-Rite, Baker Manufacturing, Dana Corp. and Knight Manufacturing. He was a Bible student of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Surviving are his wife; a son, Elmer Jr. at home; three stepdaughters, Lonna Field of Beloit, Barbara Kubly of Monticello and Marayne Teal of Dubuque, Iowa; two stepsons, Charles Anderson and Richard Anderson, both of Monticello; 18 grandchildren; and a brother, Ralph of Janesville; and two sisters, Jeanette Ainger of Beloit and Lois McCaslin of Janesville.

Services will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Ward Funeral Home, where friends may Call from 6 p.m. until time of service. Cremation will follow services.

NOTE: Inurnment in Highland cemetery, Monticello.