

Jacob Stauffer
July 11, 1851 - Aug 6, 1914

Jacob Stauffer, well known resident of Monticello, passed away last Thursday after a long period of ill health. The deceased was born in Switzerland in Canton Bern, and came to this country at the age of 24 years. He followed the vocation of a cheesemaker for quite a number of years after which he engaged in farming.

In the year of 1881 he was married to Kathrina ZumBrunnen. The union was blessed with nine children all of which with his wife survive him. The funeral was held Sunday at Monticello.

NOTE: Interred in Highland cemetery, Monticello.
