

Robert Theiler
May 1870 - July 21, 1932

Robert Theiler, 62, died Thursday night, a victim, of the heat.

Mr. Theiler was born in Washington township in 1870. For many years he had conducted farms in Washington township and near Albany, and had resided in Monroe for 24 years, having conducted a real estate and insurance business here, a furniture store, and recently a lunch room.

He was a member of the I. O. O. F., and G. U. G. G. lodges.

Surviving are the widow and three children, Herman F., Monroe; Mrs. J. D. Hahlen, Brodhead, and Robert W., Fort Dodge, Ia.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at the Knight and Voelkli funeral home and from St. John's Evangelical church, the Rev. P. A. Schuh, Monroe, and A. Muehlmeier, Monticello, officiating. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery.
