

Lydia Treuthardt
Feb. 25, 1902 – Oct. 27, 1968

MONTICELLO-Mrs. David Treuthardt, 66, of Rt. 4, Monroe, former longtime area resident, died Sunday in Green County Hospital where she had been a patient since February, 1967, after a six-year illness.

Born in Canton Bern, Switzerland Feb. 25, 1902, the former Lydia Leibundgut came to Monticello in 1922 and was employed there until her marriage Feb. 4, 1924, to David Treuthardt. The couple farmed in this area until moving to their present home in 1965.

Surviving are her husband; 10 sons, Louis, Footville, David Jr., Belvue, Colo., John, Janesville, Emil, Walter, Franklin and Fritz, all of Juda, Robert and Henry, both of Monroe, and Carl, Argyle; a daughter, Mrs. William Mitchell, Denver, Colo.; 23 grandchildren; several brothers and sisters in Switzerland.

Burial in Highland Cemetery.