

Pauline F. Voegeli
Oct. 26, 1928 - July 29, 1993

Pauline Voegeli, 64, Monroe, died July 29, 1993 at St. Clare Hospital.

She was born Oct. 26, 1928, the daughter of John and Elizabeth (Teuscher) Minnig. She attended Loveland School and graduated from Monticello High School.

On Aug. 29, 1946 she married Frederick M. Voegeli at the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

She worked at Ruf's Confectionery, Yodel Bake Shop, Culligan Water Softening, UTELCO and Swiss Colony.

She was a member of the Moose Lodge and United Methodist Church, Monroe.

Survivors include her husband; a son, William, Argyle; two daughters, Sandi (Scott) Lenz, Casa Grande, Ariz.; and Vicky (Mark) Flannery, South Wayne; a sister, Helen (Ernest) Hiltbrand, Monroe; and seven grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Walter Minnig; and a sister, Olga (Fred) Strahm.

Services were held Aug. 2 at United Methodist with Rev. Anthony Farina officiating. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery, Monroe.