

Claude B. Wallom

August 28, 1902 - March 21, 1984

Claude B. Wallom, 81, Monticello, died March 21, 1984, at Mercy San Juan Hospital, Carmichael, Calif., where he had been admitted on March 18. He had been visiting his sons in California since March 14, when he became ill.

The son of Edwin and Siddie Brayton Wallom, he was born in Monticello on August 28, 1902. He graduated from Monticello High School in 1920 and farmed near New Glarus. He had been employed for more than 30 years as a yardman at the former Karlen and Steinmann Lumber Company, until retiring in 1972.

Survivors are two sons, Eugene, Stockton, Calif., and Duane, Lodi, Calif.; one sister, Mary Peterson, formerly of Monticello, now a resident at the New Glarus Home, three grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents in 1955 and a sister, Mrs. Frank (Ardys) C. Riese, on Nov. 11, 1974.

Funeral services were held Monday, March 26 in the Zwingli Church Memorial Lounge, Monticello, with the Rev. Charles G. Workman officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Hollis Baebler, Robert Durtschi, Lawrence P. Huntley, William G. Meier, Warren V. Prisk and Bryon Riese, all of Monticello.

Voegeli Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.
