

Clarence A. Webb
May 15, 1911 – November 28, 1970
Clarence A. Webb, 59, Dies Saturday

Funeral services for Clarence A. Webb, 59 years of age, clerk of Mt. Pleasant township for the past 10 years, who died at 6:35 p. m. Saturday in the St. Clare hospital, Monroe, following a lingering illness, were held at 2 Wednesday afternoon in the Christian Church, DeLand, Ill.

The Rev. Robin Self officiated and burial was in the Deland cemetery.

A former John Deere dealer in Farmer City and DeLand, Ill., Mr. Webb also had worked for the John Deere firm at Moline, Ill., before moving to the Monticello area in 1957. He purchased the Calvin Stauffer, on the south edge of Monticello. Until illness forced him to retire he had also worked at the Farm Bureau Warehouse in Monroe.

Born in DeLand, May 15, 1911, he was a son of Wilson and Cecil Longworth Webb. He graduated from DeLand high school. On Feb. 4, 1933, he was married in Decatur, Ill., to Martha Marvel.

Mr. Webb was a member of the Memorial Christian Church in Rock Island, Ill., and of the Green County Farm Bureau.

Surviving are the widow; two daughters, Mrs. Leo (Doris) Kelleher, Preemption, Ill. and Mrs. Fred (Linda) Lauper, Browntown; two brothers, Wayne and Rex, both of DeLand; two sisters, Mrs. Dale Long, Clinton Iowa, and Mrs. Len Parrish, DeLand; and three grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, Roy, and two sisters.
