Lee R. Zimmerman, 73, Area Native Dies; Rites Held Saturday

Funeral services for Lee R. Zimmerman, 73 years of age, Janesville, a Green county native, who died Thursday in a Stoughton hospital after a brief illness, were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Roderick-Ward Funeral Home, Evansville.

Interment was in Highland cemetery here.

Mr. Zimmerman was born at Attica, the son of Rudolph and Verena Zimmerman Zimmerman. The family later moved to Monticello and Mr. Zimmerman graduated from high school here in 1916. He was an engineer in Chicago for 40 years and retired in 1960. For several years he lived a short distance north of Albany, and for the past two years or more had resided at Rock Haven, a retirement home north of Janesville.

An active Mason, Mr. Zimmerman had been a member and past officer of Masonic organizations in Albany, Monroe, Evansville, and Janesville. He also was a member of the Madison Consistory. He was a member and past officer of the Eastern Star in both Albany and Evansville.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Charles Peterson, Evansville.
