

Alan L. Crouch

Alan L. Crouch, age 50 of Monticello, died unexpectedly on Sunday, November 20, 2016 at his home. Alan was born February 7, 1966 in Monroe, the son of Dennis and Donna (Lean) Crouch. Alan graduated from Monticello High School in 1984 and attended Southwest Wisconsin Technical College in Fennimore. He married Jill Hetzner on August 12, 1989 at the Washington Reformation UCC. Alan drove milk truck for several years and for the last 15 years was employed as a semi driver for FedEx. He was a member of the Monticello Lions Club and was a former volunteer with the Monticello Fire Department. He enjoyed fishing trips with his family.

He is survived by his wife, Jill Crouch of Monticello; three children, Ashton Alan Crouch, Kalley Joe Crouch, both of Monticello, and Abby Leib of Cuba City; four grandchildren, Sierra, Bailey, Gage, and Tyler; his father, Dennis Crouch; and mother, Donna MacNaughton, both of Monticello; a sister, Lynda (Larry) Caldwell of Albany; a nephew, Richard Nash (special friend, Melody); and two nieces, Shaliko and Shyann Harry. He was preceded in death by his maternal and paternal grandparents; and an Aunt, Ilene Bandi.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 26, 2016, at 11:00 a.m., at the Newcomer Funeral Home, Monroe. Interment will be in Highland Cemetery, Monticello, followed by a luncheon at Zwingli United Church of Christ. Visitation will be at the funeral home on Friday from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. A memorial fund will be established in Alan's name. Condolences may be shared at www.newcomerfuneralhome.net.
