

John J. Disch

John Jacob Disch, 89, Albany, former Monticello resident, died Sunday, June 20, 1976, at the Monroe Manor Nursing Home. He was born April 22, 1887, the son of Baltz and Marie Blumer Disch. He married Elizabeth Rhyner on December 21, 1911, at Monticello, and they farmed in the Monticello area.

He was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Milron Krueger, Evansville, Mrs. LaVerne Duerst, DeForest, Mrs. Robert Gempeler, Albany, and Mrs. Kenneth Frydenlund, Albany, 16 grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were his wife, on Dec. 9, 1975, and a daughter, Bernice Gill, on Aug. 8, 1975.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, June 22, at Gohlke's Sharer Funeral Home, Albany, with his pastor Rev. Charles G. Workman, officiating. Burial was in Hillcrest Cemetery.