

Clark Dooley Jr.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Clark J. Dooley Jr., 63, of Philadelphia, Pa., died Saturday, Oct. 15, 1994 at home.

He was born March 1, 1931 at Monticello.

He graduated from Monticello High School and enlisted in the Navy. He was stationed at Navy Pier in Philadelphia, where he made his home.

Survivors include: his mother, Mrs. Clark (Dorothy) Dooley Sr., Monticello; two brothers, Roger, Monticello, and Joseph, Denver, Colo.; a sister, Mrs. Robert (Peggy) Burlison, Sumter, S.C.; two sons, Robert, Fort Mead, Md., and David, Norfolk, Va.; four daughters, Rosanne Anderson, Florence, Colo., Denise, Donna and Diane, of Philadelphia; his wife, Mai; three stepchildren, eight grandchildren, a great-grandson, and two step-grandchildren.

Mr. Dooley was preceded in death by his father, Clark Dooley Sr.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Deter Funeral Home in Philadelphia.