Judy was a loving, devoted, mother, grandmother and friend who was full of life and always had a smile on her face. She was happiest when surrounded by family and made everyone feel special in their own way. Her life revolved around her family. She was very proud of all her grandchildren and was looking forward to being a great grandmother. She enjoyed gardening, fishing, mushroom hunting, painting, entertaining friends, traveling, dining out, cheering on the Packers, dog sitting Lola, and living life to the fullest. Never missed an opportunity to play a game of euchre with her family and looked forward to weekly card games with friends. For many years she was the hostess and owner of the Casino Supper Club and later retired from Walmart where she formed many great friendships. Her faith was foremost and she was a devoted member of St. Clare of Assisi Parish. She instilled Christian faith and values in her children. We will miss her every day of our lives.
