

FRANCES M. SCHLITTLER

Frances M. Schlittler, age 84 of Monticello, died Friday March 5, at home. She was born in rural Monroe on Nov. 30, 1914 to Fred and Bertha (Keller) Blumer. She graduated from Albany High School class of 1932. She went on to Nurses Training at Evangelical Deaconess Hospital in Monroe. On March 22, 1938 she was married at the Albany Baptist Church Parsonage to Edwin M. Schlittler. They farmed in rural Monticello on Hwy. 39 from the time they were married until moving to the village in 1969. She devoted her life to raising and caring for the well being of her family. She enjoyed puzzles, sewing, and working on her lawn and garden. She looked forward to her yearly garage sale.

She was also a member of Zwingli United Church of Christ in Monticello.

Survivors include her husband Edwin, Monticello; one daughter, Karen (Roger) Brugger, Monticello; one brother, Bill (Shirley) Blumer, Albany; two sisters, Gladys Jones, Monroe, and Hazel Staats, Milwaukee, seven grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, and two step grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, son Robert in 1988, a grandson Thomas Brugger in 1962, and three brothers, Robert, LeRoy, and John.

Funeral services were held Monday March 8, at the Zwingli United Church of Christ in Monticello. The Rev. Larry Balleine officiated. Burial was in the Highland Cemetery in Monticello.
