

Albert Weissmiller Succumbs At Home

1859 - 1936

Monticello — Albert Weissmiller, aged 76, lifelong Washington township and Monticello, was called by death Saturday afternoon in his home here. He had been ill two weeks.

He was born in Monticello July 5, 1859, the son of Jacob and Elizabeth Dick Weissmiller. His marriage to Anna Bieri took place in Washington township Nov. 20, 1884. They farmed in Washington township until October, 1917, when they moved to Monticello. They lived here since.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Anna Weissmiller, Monticello; a daughter, Mrs. W. C. Baumgartner, Monticello; two sons, Albert C. Weissmiller, Monticello, and Dr. Lester L. Weissmiller, Albany; five grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Gottfried Wiedmer, Oshkosh, and a brother, Jacob Weissmiller, Shattuckville, Mass. He was a member of the German Reformed church, Washington township.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon in the Weissmiller home and at 2 in the German Reformed church, Monticello. Rev. A. Muehlmeier, pastor, will officiate. Interment will be in Highland cemetery.