

HARRIS K. WITTENWYLER

Harris K. Wittenwyler, 73, Wittenwyler Road, Monticello, died Saturday, April 16, 1988, at St. Clare Hospital, Monroe.

Born March 3, 1915, in Monticello, he was the son of Walter and Lydia (Kubly) Wittenwyler. He graduated from Monticello High School in 1932. His marriage to the former Ruth H. Poor took place Feb. 7, 1945, at Fort Knox, Ky. He entered the service Nov. 6, 1941, at Fort Sheridan and served as a private first class at Fort Knox, where he was a mechanic and instructor. He was discharged Nov. 16, 1945.

He was a mechanic for Krieg and Zurbuchen in Monticello until 1950, when he moved to Mount Pleasant and farmed on the home farm. He was a member of the Zwingli United Church of Christ, Monticello.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth; his mother, Lydia K. Wittenwyler, at the New Glarus Home; three sons, Kurt, Mark and Wade, all of Monticello; and three grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his father, Jan. 21, 1982.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Zwingli United Church of Christ with the Rev. Erwin H. Pegel officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Monticello.

Pallbearers were Alfred Aeberhardt, Karl Duerst, Conrad F. Elmer, Fred Minder, Royal W. Karlen Jr., Ray Schenk and Edwin Schlittler, Monticello, and Gary Butenhoff, Monroe.

Voegeli Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.